EDITORIAL NOTE

I am pleased to introduce International Clinical Cardiology Journal a rapid peer reviewed Journal which have a key concerns over the medical practices by exploring the best patient oriented clinical research and by exhibiting this information both directly, as clinical findings, and in practice oriented formats of direct application in day-today situations. I am pleased to announce that, issues of volume 3 were published online well within the time and the print issues were also brought out and dispatched within 30 days of publishing the issue online during the year of 2019.

The Clinical Cardiology Journal aims to flourish and to maintain the standards in research and practice, provide platform and opportunity to present evidence based medicine and analytical assessment of research and probably it is much in deed for students, teachers and Cardiology professionals to enhance the patient care. During the calendar year of 2019, Clinical Cardiology Journal received a total of 20 manuscript, out of which 12 articles were rejected in the preliminary screening due to plagiarism or being out of the format and peer review process. During 2019 around 8 articles were subjected for publication after they are accepted in the peer review process. In the 2 issues of Volume 3 published during the year 2019, a total of 4 articles were published (at an average of 5 articles per issue) of which, articles were published from authors all around the world. Globally articles have been accessed by the research scientists and also cited.

During the calendar year 2019, a total of two Editors, seven Reviewers joined the board of Clinical Cardiology Journal and contributed their valuable services towards contribution as well as publication of articles, and their valuable reviewer comments will beneficial to publish quality of article in the Journal.

I take this opportunity to acknowledge the contribution of (Fazliddin Sobirov Karimkulovich) during the final editing of articles published and the support rendered by the editorial assistant, in bringing out issues of Clinical Cardiology Journal in time. I would also like to express my gratitude to all the authors, reviewers, the publisher, the advisory and the editorial board of Clinical Cardiology Journal, the office bearers for their support in bringing out yet another volume of Clinical Cardiology Journal and look forward to their unrelenting support to bring out the Volume 4 of Clinical Cardiology Journal in scheduled time.
