

Editorial Note for Journal of Clinical Diagnosis and Treatment

Emily White

It is our pleasure to announce that during year 2019, all issues of volume 3 were published online on time and the print issues were also brought out and dispatched within 30 days of publishing the issue online.

Journal of Clinical Diagnosis and Treatment during this year also brought out Joint Event on 19th Annual Conference on Nephrology & 3rd International Conference on Chronic Diseases, which consisted of ~ 27 abstracts.

All published articles of this journal are included in the indexing and abstracting coverage of Publons (Part of Web of science group, a Clarivate Analytics Company), Google Scholar and Studies receiving funding from a funding organization that is included on the list of PMC and Research Funder Policies or authors having NIH grant will be submitted to PubMed.

During years 2018-2019, Clinical Diagnosis and Treatment received a total of 65 papers, out of which 43 articles (68%) were rejected in the preliminary screening due to plagiarism or being out of the format and peer review process, around 7 articles were subjected for publication after they were accepted in the peer review process from reviewers all around the world.

I take this opportunity to acknowledge the contribution of Editor-in-Chief: Dr. Xiaojun Chen (China) and Associate Editors: Michael Tanzer (Canada), Mirko Velickovic (Germany) during the final editing of articles published and the support rendered by the editorial assistants in bringing out issues of Journal of Clinical Diagnosis and Treatment in time. I would also like to express my gratitude to all the authors, reviewers, the publisher, the advisory and the editorial board of Journal of Clinical Diagnosis and Treatment, the office bearers for their support in bringing out yet another volume of Journal of Clinical Diagnosis and Treatment and look forward to their unrelenting support to bring out the Volume 3 of Journal of Clinical Diagnosis and Treatment in scheduled time.
